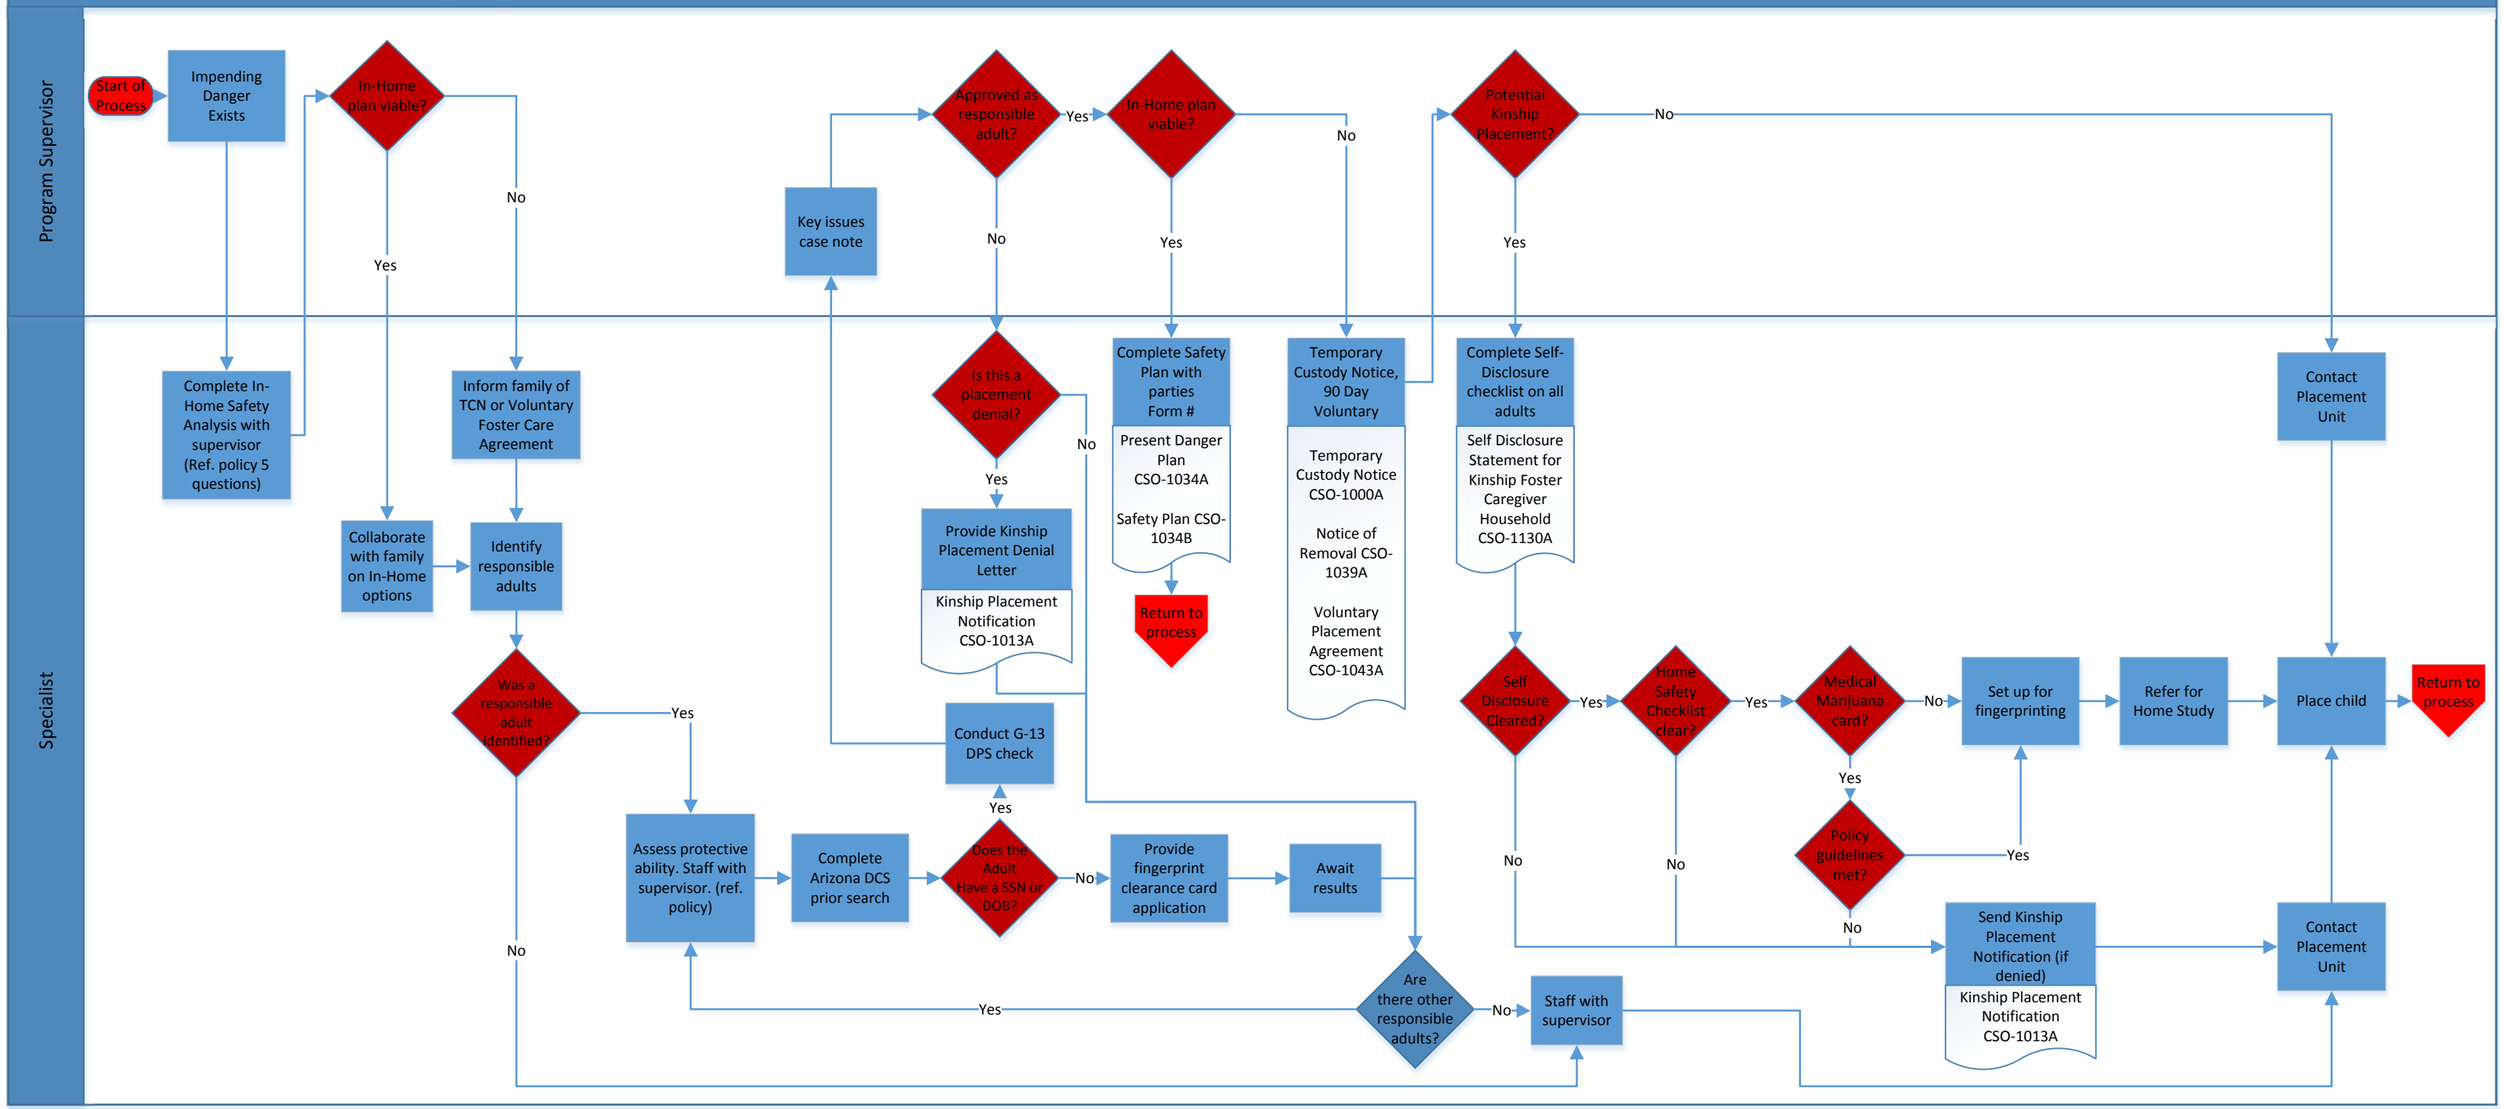
Safety Planning – Process for the Assessment of Protective Persons or Removal and Placement


Use this process when present or impending danger has been determined.